ABOUT TODAY'S SPEAKER

Today's guest preacher is Keith O'Connor who is originally from Dearborn, MI where he grew up in a Irish-Catholic family. He decided to follow Jesus when he was in high school. He has been married to Christy for 16 years and they have four children; Daniel who is 15, daughter Riley is 10, Megan is 9, and Alaina is 6. They have been attending Woodland Church in Brownstown, MI for about 4 years. Keith and his wife are involved in the praise band and in Elevation, the high school Wednesday night worship.

He has been a police officer in Taylor for 20 years and will be retiring July 31, 2017 to pursue full time ministry. He recently went back to school (after 20 plus years of not being in school) and graduated with a Bachelor's of Science in Theological and Biblical Studies.

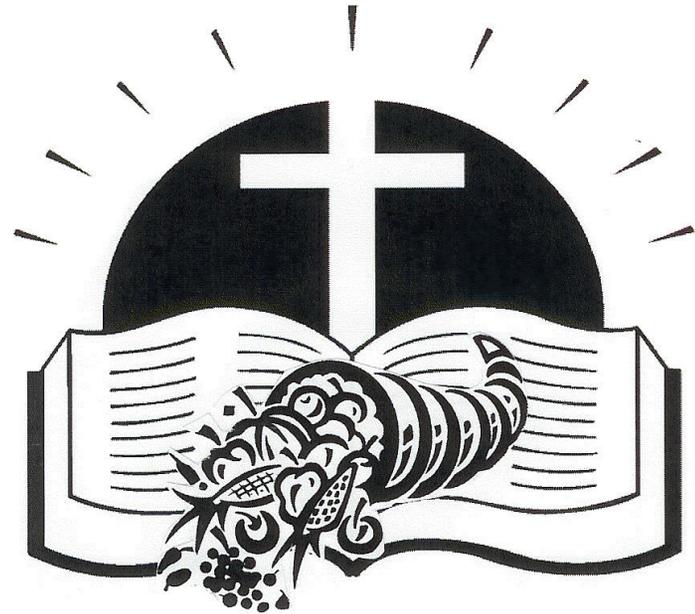

He has always felt God calling him into full time ministry, even when he was a youth minister after high school for the church he grew up in. But for the last few years the calling has been stronger and that he is being called into ministry full time
